Your perfect stay begins with one of our city-center hotels, handpicked for attentive service and a terrific location. Or experience the timeless traditions of a Japanese inn with our Yoshi-ima Ryokan option. Your city tour includes the magnificent Golden Pavilion, Nijo Castle and the Kyoto Imperial Palace.

Accommodations

New Miyako Hotel (Kyoto, Japan)

The New Miyako Hotel is located adjacent to the Kyoto rail station at the Shinkansen Line and convenient access to several palaces, shrines and temples that offer the true essence of Japanese culture. The Views from the 714 tastefully-decorated rooms at the New Miyako Hotel offer wonderful panoramas of the city. Guest rooms include cable television, direct-dial telephone and mini-bar.

Rihga Royal Hotel (Kyoto, Japan)

The Rihga Royal Hotel is located in Kyoto, where opportunities to experience local cultural are as easy as leaving the hotel. All guest rooms have standard amenities, including air-conditioning, telephone, and TV. Other hotel facilities include four different restaurants with a variety of cuisine, two bars, one lounge, a fitness center, and swimming pool.

Yoshi-Ima Ryokan (Kyoto, Japan)

The Yoshi-Ima Ryokan is located at the center of Kyoto, facing the old fashioned tea houses that were once the city's night clubs in former days; instead, Maiko and Geisha roam these streets in Kimono and white face at night. Within walking distance is the Yasaka shrine, Kiyomizu temple and the Kodaiji temple. The Yoshi-Ima serves authentic cuisine, as well as western cuisine.

Westin Miyako Hotel (Kyoto, Japan)

With spectacular views of the ancient capitol of Japan, The Westin Miyako Kyoto enjoys a soothing setting in a Japanese garden. Close to downtown Kyoto, guests can stroll through one of our beautiful Japanese gardens, and then enjoy a warm cup of tea at our ancient style teahouse. The hotel also features an outdoor jogging track and tennis courts and indoor pool. Restaurants offer both traditional and Western fare. The spacious guest rooms include a signature Heavenly Bed®.

Kyoto Hotel Okura (Kyoto, Japan)

Kyoto Hotel Okura is conveniently located in the heart of Kyoto and combines intrinsic style with the high level of service. The Kyoto Hotel Okura is close to the Kyoto central shopping district of Shijo-Kawaramachi and convenient to the Imperial Palace, Kyoto's oldest temple, Toji, and Nijo Castle. Providing a tranquil setting within an urban environment, the lavish decor of Kyoto Hotel Okura encompasses a touch of the 1920s, with warm wood paneling, majestic columns, and comfortable armchairs in the spacious hotel Lobby that towers up to the 2nd floor level. Each of the hotel's 322 beautifully appointed guest rooms and suites combines a luxurious feel with splendid mountain views from the room's large picture windows.
